In Loving Memory of

Bruno Volker Koob

(February 25, 1959 - November 20, 2008)

I would much rather have three minutes of happiness than a lifetime of nothing special!!!!

Unknown

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Bruno Koob who was born in Germany on February 25, 1959 and passed away on November 20, 2008. You left us all to soon! You will live forever in our souls, hearts and memories. You are missed dearly.

The background is a textured, mottled olive-green or taupe color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed. The word "Gallery" is written in a white, elegant script font, centered horizontally and partially overlapping the roses.

Bruno was the best husband, father, son, brother & opa that anyone anywhere could have asked for.

Bruno has two sons from his first marriage who were the light of his life. Cody Koob and David Koob. No prouder father have I ever seen. Even though they didn't always see eye to eye he loved his son's unconditionally and without fail.

Bruno also had 3 "step children" with me, however he never looked at my children as step kids they were all his and he loved them all with all his heart. Never did Bruno treat my children different than his own.

Bruno was a proud Opa of 7 grandchildren that he didn't get to spend as much time with as he would have liked to. One of them not at all. But this did not stop him from loving each of them the same.

Bruno and I were married November 4, 2006 we had just celebrated our 2nd anniversary before his passing. We didn't have much time together but the time that I did have with him was the best that I could have asked for and I wouldn't change a thing.

Baby you will live on forever in my heart and through your sons all of them.

We all miss you so so much.

Our Deepest Sympathy
